DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kashiwagi (4,661,995).

Regarding claim 1, Kashiwagi discloses a superheterodyne receiver showing a shifting means (101, 102, 17, 18), and a control means (103,104).

Regarding claims 2 and 3, see col. 3, lines 23-26.

Regarding claim 4, see col. 4, lines 34-38.

Regarding claims 5-10, in addition of rejections above, Kashiwagi is intended to receive different RF signals and to produce different IF signals.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Kuo et al. (5,307,515) shows a frequency shifting means.

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
